THE INDIAN SOCIAL REFORMER

BOMBAY June 18th 1913

My dear Friend,

Your telegram and very kind letter. I wrote to Dr. Reed yesterday, as soon as I read your article, and he replied that he was delighted to get it not only for its own sake" but also ~~because~~ showing that you are still be able to find time to write now and then in the midst of your duties. It was really a morning piece of writing.

I am all right, and am going somewhat slowly, for the present, with my work.

Many thanks for writing about poor Lakshmibai. I went to her place yesterday for a few minutes, but could not stay longer as I had to be back at the office. I understand the rites were to be the Samaj's, at her desire.

From this month, the monthly reports of the Florence Nightingale Fund workers, will appear in the Reformer. I will send copies of the paper to Sir William Wedderburn so that he may also know what is being done. This will also be a permanent record. The two workers are doing fairly well.

I had a letter from Mr Gokhale last week about the New Statesman arrangement and also one — a very kind one — from Mr Sidney Webb. Mr Gokhale said his health was steadily improving.

With kind regards, Bhadra Chandavarkar,

Yours affectionately

K. Natarajan
