KHAR ROAD
BANDRA

15th June 1913

My dear Friend,

In your most felicitous address to be delivered next Friday, you ask a question which will move Lady Hardinge deeply, if my information is correct. I am told - by Reed-man - the idea of the Children's Day suggested by Her because her little daughter, the late Dimond Hardinge, was to have occupied the seat on the howdah immediately behind the Viceroy on the fatal day, and it was only at the very last moment that the arrangement was altered and the Sepoy put in there – the poor fellow who was blown to pieces!

I think you will like the leader in today's Express about Lord Hardinge.

Yours Ever affectionately

G. Natesajan.

I am all right now.
