PSY252-HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY -SUDARSHAN R KOTTAI

MID SEMESTER EXAM QUIZ-OCTOBER 2021

1._____ showed the relationship between occupation and health

a. White report
b. Black report
c. Swaminathan Commission report
d. Pink report

1. Families, schools and neighborhoods are included in _____in Bronfenbrenner's ecological systems model

a. Microsystem
b. Mesosystem
c. Exosystem
d. Macrosystems

2. Theory of 'Justice as fairness' was propounded by

a. John Rawls
b. Amartya Sen
c. Cheryl Mattingly
d. M R Rajagopal

4. Experiential account of suffering is _____

a. Disease

b. Disorder

c. Illness

D. Syndrome

5. India's first blind woman IAS officer Pranjal Patil took charge as sub collector of Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala in 2019. According to news reports, "Patil lost her eyesight at the age of eight due to retinal detachment. She graduated in political science from St Xavier's College, Mumbai and did her masters in international relations from JNU. Patil completed her studies with the support of various softwares that read out printed text into speech" (TNN, 2019). In this case, retinal detachment is _____

a. disability

b. impairment

c. handicap

d. syndrome

6. Who proposed the concept of critical consciousness?

a. John Rawls

b. Amartya Sen

c. Paulo Friere

d. Michel Foucault

7. _____refers to the process by which political, economic, and social-structural causes of health problems are interpreted instead in biologic, behavioral, and technological terms.

a. Misdiagnosis

b. Misrecognition

c. Overdiagnosis

d. Underrating

8. PM 2.5 often appears in news. It is related to _____

a. Sound pollution

b. Environmental pollution

c. Air pollution

d. Water pollution

9. Individualistic change that doesn't take into account power dynamics is _____change

a. Ameliorative change

b. Transformative change

c. Static progress

d. Continuous change

10. Perceptual shift from individualist to the structuralistic perspective helps in _____ context minimization error

a. reducing

b. increasing

c. maintaining

d. nourishing

11. The journal article "Conversations with Kidney Vendors in Pakistan: An Ethnographic Study," primarily aims to throw light on the lived experiences and psychosocial context of

a. Organ receivers
b. Organ donors
c. Pakistani doctors
d. Pakistani health care system

12. _____model assumes that disease don't have psychological causes but only consequences.

a. Biopsychosocial
b. Biomedical
c. First order change
d. Second order change

13. The YouTube TED video titled The danger of a single story which was played in the class is related to important concept(s) such as _____related to health.

a. Stigma

b. Stereotypes/Prejudice

c. Discrimination

d. All of the above

14. Materialism and mentalism fall under the broad category of _____

a. dualism

b. monism

c. interactionism

d. All of the above

15. Invisible categories of stigma is also called _____stigma and is a concept given by _____

1. Discredited, Kelley
2. Discreditable, Goffman
3. Self, Goffman
4. None of the above

16._____is a model that exposes the link between sustainable development, plat health, animal health and ecosystem health

a. Sustainable development goal
b. Millennium development goal
c. One health
d. Indigenous health system rejuvenation

17. Methodological individualism prevalent in psy disciplines including mainstream (health) psychology focuses on

a. individual's characteristics as causes of social phenomena
b. social characteristics as causes of individual phenomena
c. both
d. none of the above

18. The computers have replaced the typewriters and consequentially the typists will lose their jobs if they don't upskill/reskill themselves to adapt to the new demands. The kind of unemployment that arises when old skills become redundant is called_____ unemployment

a. structural
b. frictional
c. seasonal
d. none of the above

19. A white gay man and a black lesbian woman represent multiple social locations producing minority stress in an individual. This calls for a deeper analysis of health and well-being in terms of _____

a. intersectionality
b. identity confusion
c. eclectic perspective
d. none of the above

20. UN Free and Equal campaign is a transformative human rights based awareness campaign for rights of _____

a. Women
b. LGBTQIA+ people
c. Sex workers
d. Disabled people